<sup>3</sup> By stipulating to "FRE 703," the parties mean that they stipulate that the proposed exhibit may be admitted solely for the limited purpose of evaluating the expert's opinion, not for its truth. Fed. R. Evid. 703. Williams v. Illinois, 567 U.S. 50, 78 (2012) ("Under [703], basis evidence that is not admissible for its truth may be disclosed even in a jury trial under appropriate circumstances. The purpose for allowing this disclosure is that it may assist the jury to evaluate the expert's opinion.") (quotation marks, citation, and alteration omitted); United States v. Skodnek, 896 F. Supp. 60, 66 (D. Mass. 1995) (admitting basis evidence subject to an instruction that such evidence may be "considered solely as a basis for the expert opinion and not as substantive evidence"). The parties maintain a hearsay objection to the use of the proposed exhibit for its truth.
